

Dear Friends of the Foundation:

Some time ago I found this picture of John Calvin by conducting a Google images search (though more recently, I have not been able to find it again):

I am not sure why this fascinates me. Calvin appears to be young (dark beard), painfully thin, perhaps in his study instead of the pulpit (though maybe he really did wear that skull cap in public!), and so intense! Surely by an unblinking study of the Word, he peered into, and points us into, eternity.

May we follow him in a right reading, preaching, and hearing of the Word!

Grace and Peace,

Jim
