

Dear Friends of the Foundation:

While I was pastor of Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church of Richmond, Virginia, when my phone rang on Saturday at 11:00 p.m., I knew who it was.

"Mr. Goodloe," Dr. Leith would ask, "are you going to preach the gospel tomorrow, or are you just going to pussyfoot around?"

"Yes, sir," I would stammer, "I am going to try to preach the gospel."

"How many new members are you taking in?"

How I miss those phone calls! John Leith knew more about the Christian faith, and loved the church of Jesus Christ more, than anyone else I have ever known.

May God grant that those of us who remain here may so love and proclaim the gospel and so strive to build up the church!

Grace and Peace,

Jim
