

May 5, 2009

Dear Friends of the Foundation:

As you know, the Foundation is grateful for the privilege of having been able to provide a subvention for the publication of Dr. Elsie Anne McKee's first ever English translation of the 1541 French edition of John Calvin's Institutes of the Christian Religion. The purpose of the subsidy was to help keep the purchase price low enough that people could actually buy the volume.

Moreover, several of our directors and officers, as well as members of two of our ministerial study seminars, are grateful to have been able to attend her lecture at Princeton Theological Seminary on Tuesday, April 28, launching its publication.

What we did not anticipate, and what I am writing to share with you now, is that the seminary presented us a certificate of appreciation for our participation in this project. It reads as follows:

The Foundation for Reformed Theology is given this Certificate of Appreciation

in gratitude for their support of Dr. Elsie Anne McKee's new English translation of John Calvin's 1541 French edition of the Institutes of the Christian Religion (Wm. B. Eerdmans, 2009) and their contribution of Princeton Theological Seminary's 2009 programming in honor of the 500th birthday of John Calvin and his continued relevance for the church today.

This certificate is presented on the twenty-eighth day of April in the year of our Lord Two Thousand and Nine.

*Iain R. Torrance
President and Professor of Patristics
Princeton Theological Seminary*

So, congratulations!

For more information about the book, and for a link to the publisher so that you may purchase it, please see this page on our website:

www.foundationrt.org/resources_publications.html

As you know, the translation and publication of important books of Reformed theology is one of the main program areas of the Foundation. We are very grateful to have been a part of making this work available in bookstores not only for seminary and college libraries but also for church libraries and for your own libraries. This is an important part of our promotion of the study and application of Reformed theology for the renewal of the faith and life of the local congregations of the church. It is our fond hope that we will be able to participate in many more such projects in the years to come.

Grace and Peace,

Jim

Dr. James C. Goodloe IV, Executive Director

Foundation for Reformed Theology

4103 Monument Avenue

Richmond, Virginia 23230

www.foundationrt.org

(804) 678-8352

"Promoting the study of Reformed theology for the renewal of the church"

The Foundation is exempt from Federal income tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) and is not a private foundation as defined by Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.