Dear Friends of the Foundation:

Perhaps our pastor-scholars will appreciate this:

On Friday afternoon, as I was leaving a shopping center, a warning came over the radio that a severe thunderstorm was about to strike and that everyone should seek cover. As we raced for the house, the storm overtook us. Some of the stop lights along the way were not functioning properly. It occurred to me that the power might have been knocked out at the house, too. This alarmed my three year old grandson, who immediately asked, "How will people write their dissertations?"

Grace and Peace,

Dr. James C. Goodloe IV, Executive Director
